Official Newspaper for the Archdiocese of Seattle

Seattle, Wash., Friday, Oct. 19, 1962

More Council News And Pictures, Pages 2, 3, 6

$4.00 per year-10c per copy

Vol. 65-No. 42

Archbishop Connolly Describes Procedures:

Council Votes On Commissions

THE HISTORIC PROCESSION of Council Fathers wends its way into St. Peter's Basilica in a picture taken at the Council opening. In the photo below, Progress reporter and photographer, Bob Jackson, pictured the Most Reverend Archbishop Thomas A. Connolly as he walked in procession with the other participants in the Second Vatican Council. In his message to world assemble for the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council, the favorite

Italian expression, "Pazienza," meaning patience, becomes the key watchword for all those

The magnitude of the task

this council faces appears more impressive the closer we come to the point of actual deliberations. At the same time, an approach to their possible outcome more realistic than the one so far apparent in public opinion imposes itself inescapably as observers become aware of the scope of the agenda - one more comprehensive and complete than ever before tackled in the history of the

It will take a fortnight at least before the council Fathers can settle down to the examination of specific problems. The following weeks, up to the time of the Christmas recess, in all likelihood will produce but preliminary understandings which must be debated in the course of the council's second phase, how long this second phase will last or whether at its conclusion, perhaps this coming summer, other phases will fol-

Only slowly will a consensus emerge on which of the numerous issues proposed for consideration will lend themselves to being voted on in the general meetings. Even after the voting, His Holiness

Pope John XXIII has the last word. It is his responsibility to decide which of the resolutions adopted should become

In the meantime, "pazienza," the law of the Church.

after Epiphany. No one knows

Church.

"sitting on the fence."

Progress readers this week, Archbishop Connolly remarks on the opening session for which "mere words . . . are so inadequate . . . Among (those present were) the most richly robed prelates from the Eastern churches bearing such historic titles as the "Patriarch of Babylon," "Patiarch of Antioch," and "Patriarch of Jerusalem."

Announcing

A New Series

"The Church

And The Worker"

For Council For Council Posts Studied

Father Placid Jordan, O.S.B. menical council lasted less than an hour and then adjourned to give the council Fathers time to study the qualifications of candidates for 160 important council ROME, Oct. 11 (NC)- > each of the 10 commissions which will draw up the final decrees and constitutions which will be passed by the council. His Holiness Pope John XXIII

Preliminary council plans ing for the officers at the first

Bishop of Lille, France, asked to speak. He presented a motion asking for a delay in the and also to give the Fathers following Monday to consult on the choice of candidates.

At the second general meeting of the council, the Fathers different ecclesiastical regions, voted for their choices for the 160 posts on the 10 council com-

Joseph Cardinal Frings, Arch- Mass celebrated by Archbishop Zaragoza, Spain, who was named October 15 one of the > Following the Mass, Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, dean of the Sacred College of Cardinals and member of the Council Presidency, read the prayer Adsu-

Remains Open

Before the meeting's business viani, president of the council's Doctrinal Commission for Faith and Morals, and Ernesto of the manner of voting. In the name of the council presidency, Cardinal Tisserant and Ernesto Cardinal Ruffini, Archbishop of Palermo, Italy, also a member of the presidency, answered the questions raised. Then the voting on the first ballot be-

Procedures Explained As the Fathers were prepar-

The Fathers were also told that all the Fathers are eligible for election, except for the officers already named by the Pope. These officers are the members of the presidency

6,000 feet above sea level, will help to transport mission priests and Medical Missionaries of Mary Sisters, commuting to their three mission stations. Heading the project to purchase the plane are two pilots of Pacific Northern Airlines.

Transactions are now being They are Jerry Fay of Mercer made to purchase a Piper

> The men hope to raise some $10,000 to purchase the air craft, plus parts and high frequency radio transmitters. The project, being introduced in this area in cooperation with the archdiocesan office of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, has been urged by Missionary Bishop Joseph B. Houlihan of Eldoret, the Ordinary of East thence to Mombasa, the Kenyan port city.

Both Fay and Donovan will assemble it at Mombasa and fly the Cub to Kitale. The men will direct instructions on how at Kitale. Both men heartily agree with those supporting them that this is indeed an ambitious project since the venture was just to fly and maintain the plane

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 18 (Radio NC)-The first general meeting of the ecu-As the bishops of the > names the other eight members of each commission.

called for the beginning of votgeneral meeting October 13.

Before business began, however, Achille Cardinal Lienart, voting. He gave as his reason time to gain a fuller knowledge of the candidates. bishop of Cologne, Germany, Casimiro Morcillo Gonzalez of announced that he associated himself with the French Cardinal's statement. As a result, the first general meeting was adjourned shortly before 10 a.m. and was not convened again until October 16, thus giving the Fathers the weekend and the

According to council regulation, the Fathers must elect 16 of their number to missions. The morning began with a four undersecretaries of the council.

Book of Gospels

Following that, Archbishop Pericle Felici, secretary general of the council, carried the book of Gospels to the altar where it remained opened between two lighted candles for the entire session.

started, Alfredo Cardinal Otta-Cardinal Roberti, president of the council's Administrative Tribunal, asked for clarification ing their ballots, a communication was read to them in six languages - Latin, Spanish, French, English, German and Italian. This dealt with the program of work for the following days and with the procedure for the elections.

(Continued on Page 6)

Says Council News Is Reduced To Rumors By The Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly Archbishop of Seattle

ROME, Oct. 18—This is the second and it will be the final communique from the Eternal City on the Second Vatican Council. After this week when the Fathers of the Council settle down for the discussion of the important topics on the agenda for this Ecumenical Assembly, the cloak of secrecy will surround the deliberations for the most part. Whatever may be published will be given out by the NCWC news room here for consumption in the United States, and there will be little that I could add to the general news reports. That particular situation has already faced the more than 200 newspaper and news correspondents who have come here to cover the Council. Some of them are fretting and fuming over the apparent lack of news and real newsworthy items of interest.

The result has been as generally happens under such circumstances, that the only articles appearing in the local press during the past few days have been somewhat in the nature of pure gossip, from "a high Vatican source," "from an undisclosed source," "on good authority" and even from "an anonymous Monsignor," as if such there could be.

Rumors Are Numerous

One of the local papers began to speculate about the Pope's health, terming it a distant but ominous cloud that hangs over the proceedings of the Council and subjecting the Holy Father's physical condition to a minute and exhaustive examination going back over the years to locate some basis for their reporting.

It is true that Pope John's four-year pontificate has been one of the busiest in the Church's history, culminating now in the most massive and demanding religious conclave the Church has ever known. It is also true that if the Pope should die, the Council would be automatically suspended for he is the supreme legislator. The Holy Father is understood to have referred to this melancholy possibility on occasion recently and expressed the hope that his successor would carry on the work that he has so auspiciously started. Other news items deal with the nebulous reports that the Church will ease up her legislation with regard to mixed marriages, that she will no longer extract the promises from the partners to a mixed marriage, that the full Catholic liturgy will be authorized for mixed marriages, etc., etc. Lately, the news media have been speculating on the supposed split between the Western European Fathers of the Council and the bishops of Italy who comprise the largest national group here. It is said that a coalition of bishops from France, Germany, Austria, Belgium, The Netherlands and Spain have advanced a twopoint plan to offset and minimize the influence of the Italians.

Aim To Counteract Italians

The first point is not to vote for any members of the Italian Episcopate, and secondly to nomi-(Continued on Page 3)

Tacoma Expects 700 For CYO Convention

TACOMA - Approximately 500 teen-agers will "make the scene" at the ninth annual CYO Convention Friday through Sunday, Oct. 26-28, in the Winthrop Hotel here.

The convention, ushering in the observance of National Catholic Youth Week from October 28 through November 4 in the Archdiocese is, as the teen-agers themselves say, "going to be a blast." Helping youth and themselves

OSWALD FLYING SER

FAA APPROVED SCHOOL

modern society and the role of young people in it will be some 175 adult leaders, who with teen delegates will represent 61 CYO teen clubs from throughout the Archdiocese.

The three-day convention, honoring as special guest Rev. Frederick J. Stevenson, national CYO director, is being held under the patronage of the Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly, Archbishop of Seat-

Commenting on the conven-

"to dig" the complexities of tion theme, "Unchanging Duty in a Changing World." Archbishop Connolly sent his welcome from Rome:

"The convention proceedings will challenge all of you to re-examine your Christian ideals and will give you a guide for applying these ideals to your parish activities. As you pray and work together during this convention, may you derive the necessary knowledge and enthus-

(Continued on page 12)

the need for prior consultation especially among members of Churches Report Storm Damage

VANCOUVER - Catholic churches and schools in southwestern Washington received full brunt of the storm which lashed the Pacific Coast October 12. According to Rev. James Deady, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, half of the parish school roof was blown off with debris from the roof breaking 27 windows. Electricity was restored in time for Sunday Masses, but the rectory was without electricity until Tuesday morning.

"With the help of many generous volunteers, we were able to get the school roof covered quickly" Father reported.

At St. James Church the copper roofing over the epistle transept was torn off, but St. Joseph Church escaped with little serious damage.

a great deal of patience, will Hardest hit Catholic institube required. It must be applied tion in the Vancouver area was not only while the council is in Providence Academy where the session, but also after its conroofing on the main wing was clusion. For the Church does blown off along with one of not live by the headlines of the the balconies. Damage estiday, but "in saecula saeculormate is $8,000. St. Joseph Hosum," which freely translated pital sustained approximately means, "by standards of eter-$5,000 of destruction, most of it in broken windows and parapets with the main cross damaged to such an extent it was

The Rev. Michael Lukas who serves St. Mary Mission, Castle Rock, reported half the church's roof blown off. Father Lukas also said volunteer workers quickly repaired the damage until it could be permanently fixed.

St. Francis Mission, Winlock, reported "considerable damage" to the church steeple, residence roof and roof of the barn on the property as well as slight damage to Sacred Heart Church, Winlock.

There was damage at St. John Mission in Glenwood and in northwestern Washington St. Mary, Star of the Sea Church in Port Townsend reported that beams just put in place for the construction of a new hall and rectory had been flattened by the gale forces.

A CAMPAIGN in the Archdiocese is now being undertaken to purchase a sleek new Piper Super Cub airplane for a Catholic African mission in Kenya. Spearheading the drive to raise approximately $10,000 are Jerry Fay of St. Monica Parish, Mercer Island, and Everett (Bud) Donovan of St. Philomena Parish, Des Moines. Looking over some of the planes in Tacoma (from left) are Donovan; Rev. Stephen Szeman, archdiocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and Fay. The campaign is entitled Marian Medical Aircraft Fund. Purchase of the airplane is being transacted through Oswald Flying Service in Tacoma.

Commenche

Wanted: Plane For Kenya Mission

The airplane, one of modern man's oft-used modes of transportation, may yet service a Catholic mission in East Africa, thanks to the efforts of two laymen from the Greater Seattle area.

Super Cub plane for the mis- Island and Everett (Bud) Donsion in Kitale in Kenya. The ovan of Des Moines. plane, which has recorded excellent performances on land Plans include the shipping of the plane from its Pennsylvania factory to New York.

started a month ago. (Continued on Page 6)

USE SUBJECT TO LICENSE AGREEMENT. REPRODUCTION, DISSEMINATION, STORAGE, DISTRIBUTION PROHIBITED

Needed: Airplane For Mission In Africa

(Continued from Page 1)

Quickness of time still pursues the pair. The plane must be ordered by November with an accompaniment of a reasonable down payment, if not the full purchase amount. They hope to have the aircraft reach Mondasa by the first week in February.

The project was the result of Fay's acquaintance with the Medical Missionary Sisters, his knowledge of African terrain and the value of an airplane. Desiring to help the missions, the 42-year-old pilot began to discuss the possibilities with his friends.

And that's how Donovan, 27, entered the picture. Next was organized the Marian Medical Aircraft Fund, the proper name and recipient of all donations.

Others assisting the pair are Tom Murphy and Dr. Paul Hardy, both parishioners from Mercer Island.

"You have to sell airplan's to get this project going," Fay said. "But it should be an in-tersting project."

Remember "SUNNY JIM," famous Peanut Butter Jams & Preserves

~~~~~~~~~~

The Kenya mission has its main hospital in Kitale, a town of 6,000 on a plateau by Mount Elgon. A clinic is located at Lodwar, 158 air miles away or an hour and a half flying time from Kitale. Lodwar has a rising population of 7,000 tribes-

A new hospital is being built at Kakuma, 50 air miles away from Lodwar. The two outposts are in a region which was closed to Whites until August of 1961. The zone in this British Protectorate was opened partly to allow missionaries to administer to natives, Fay said.

Separating the three mission sites are the desert and arid and almost waterless country. Bi hop Houlihan writes that operating a plane would be just as economical as a jeep. With airplane gas selling at 75 cents a gallon, the plane would cost some $9 per flying hour. Driving a jeep through the desert on very short trips costs some $25 to $50 depending on the weather.

Since there are no distinquishing landmarks on the esert, Fay said that a radio net would have to be established between Kitale, Lodwar, Kakuma and the plane. The plane will also be equipped with ultra high frequency radio for contact with other towns.

The men will be granted leaves of absence by PNA when they leave for Africa. They will finance their own transportation.

Fay will remain in Kitale for a month. Donovan will stay three months.

Russians Pray For Council

ROME, (Radio, NC)-Father Brevinsky of the Church of St. Louis in Moscow spoke in Russian by telephone hookup over the Italian radio network to say that the Catholics of the Soviet Union are joining their prayers to those of other Catholics throughout the world for the success of the ecumenical with dinner?

Which wine

The Christian Brothers

A member of St. Monica's Parish. Fay is a University of Minnesota graduate in aeronautical engineering. He has been a commercial pilot for 22 years. In 1946, he spent some commercial flying time in West Africa. The U.S. Navy World War II veteran lives with his wife, Ruth, and five children at 4719 86th Ave. S.E.

on Mercer Island. The couple's children are Mic' sel, 13; Patrick, 11; Michele, 8; Joan Marie, 3; and Allison, 10 months.

Donovan, a native of Portland, is single. An Army veteran, he lives at 3747 S. 188th St. in Des Moines. Like Fay. he has lived in the Seattle area for more than 15 years. Donovan has been flying commercially for 10 years.

Last year, Donovan's older pilot - brother, William, was killed in an airlines crash. Donovan attributes part of his motivation in this Kenya project as a memorial to his unity.

lic Church.

making."

historical decisions.

label tells you!

Protestantism Grows Rapidly

SANTIAGO, Chile (NC)-Protestantism is making rapid gains in traditionally Catholic

Ten years ago Protestants in this South American nation totaled 240,000. Today they number 620,000 in a total population of about 7.5 million. Chilean Protestants are divided among 77 denominations, but 90 per cent of them belong to pentecostal s 's. Most of them are members of the poorer classes.

The current figures were published here in "Protestantism in Chile," new book by Father Ignacio Vergara, S.J., who visited all of Chile's 4,000 Protestant congrega-

Today, a century after Protestantism was established in Chile, the great majority of the country's Protestants were not born into their faiths. They are fallen-away Catholics. Father Vergara said this situation is the result of the nation's lack of priests and of insufficient religious instruction.

But he also said that the organization of the Church here was too dependent on the clergy. This led, he said, to anticlericalism.

(N.C.W.C. NEWS SERVICE

put major stress on the hope that the ecumenical council underway in Rome will further religious union of Christian churches will not result directly from the council. However, they noted that the Second Vatican Council could contribute to this eventual result by internal renewal in the Cathoupon modernity and unity, however, has set the stage for truly official Protestant and Orthodox observers; the Pope's vision of 'a new order of human relations,' and his reference to a coming

'unity of mankind'-these are among the signs of history in the between those who worship God and hundreds of millions of god-

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "Surely, in a world deeply split

Telestar Provided

NEW YORK, (NC) - U.S.

viewers got fast visual coverage of the opening of the Second Vatican Council in Rome when three TV networks

made use of the communica-

The National Broadcasting

Company presented the program at 9 a.m., the Columbia

Broadcasting Company at 10 a.m. and the American Broadcasting Company shortly after tions satellite Telstar.

Fast Coverage

The Seattle Times: "The emphasis placed by Pope John XXIII

"The presence, for the first time at an ecumenical council, of

Among the editorials were these:

Editorials in the U.S. and Canadian secular press

The editorials expressed recognition that the re-

Secular Press Cites Hope

Council Will Further Unity

Finishing Touches Applied To Issaquah Villa Before Opening

Issaquah Villa Opens Doors

ISSAQUAH - A rambling residential one-story structure, overlooking Issaquah Creek. opened here recently for nursing and convalescent guests. Issaquah Villa, as the new nursing and convalescent home is called, has been designed to accommodate 85 patients. The home is situated on six and a half acres of grounds surrounded by mountains. The setting will provide the greatest possible pleasure to patients who are able to get outside. Within the grounds are convenient walkways and small garden sites.

Dr. John L. Whitaker, owner and operator, has announced that registered nurses will be on duty 24 hours a day, Some of the patients will be confined to their beds while others will be ambulatory.

Mrs. Miriam Horrigan, administrator, is interviewing prospective employees and taking reservations for admission of patients. The home also has its own laundry facilities, assuring patients an ample supply of clean linen at all times. Opened October 1, Issaquah less, the differences between churches are lesser than their need to stand shoulder to shoulder against Communism and its atheistic utmost success of the Council in Rome."

yet come to pass."

mon source."

"Therefore, let all men of good will everywhere pray for the

The New York Times: "The results of Vatican II may not be

The Los Angeles Times: "Oppressed by a Communism and

The Chicago Tribune: 'Only a few visionaries expect the

The Washington Post: "The second Vatican Council has opened fully apparent in this generation. It is clear, however, that if all branches of Christendom can forget old hates and instead reemphasize old truths, the miracle of a united Christianity may sweating through a day-to-day existence under the plotted trajectories of nuclear missiles, many Christians are reminded of their common, if compartmentalized beliefs, which spring from a com-council to break down doctrinal and other barriers which have separated the churches for hundreds of years, but there is much with the sympathetic attention of virtually the whole world and with high hopes among a great proportion of the Catholic clergy and laity and some of the attending bishops that it will somehow succeed in binding up the centuries-old wounds of Christendom."

can show the dynamism and desire for brotherhood which have enabled it to survive the persecutions of centuries and against world are to be readily healed. But the ecumenical council seeks a widening spirit of human comradeship, a deepening of the courtesies, a search for understanding, that even those who remain matter what their creed-should wish the ecumenical council success. For in the final analysis, the men in Rome are concerned about the dream of Christianity's enlarging partnership registers leaders everywhere are moving towards unity, in spirit if not in form. The times of bloody hostility are over. There is friendliness,

Study Qualifications

For Council Posts

not only with eternal salvation but with peace on earth."

The Ottawa Journal: The council "is a sign that Christianity

The Montreal Gazette: "No one expects the divisions of the

The Toronto Globe and Mail: "All Christians, and all men-no

The Toronto Telegram: The council "in generating excitement

The Toronto Daily Star: "There can be no doubt that Christian those not appearing on the dis-

By mutual but unwritten understanding, the lists of proposed candidates did not contain more than two Fathers from any one nation. The Fathers could leave for a time and then return to hand in their ballots before the dead-in the afternoon and will continue until the counting is completed. Since the ballots are so numerous and the number of names could reach a possible total of more than 400,000 the next general meeting takes place October 20 instead of October 17, as originally

During the sesson, the Fathers were informed that the order of each day's business will be published at least five days before any session. This will enable those who wish to speak on a particular matter on a given day to make the required request to the secretary general of the council three days before the general meeting

The October 20 session is being opened with a Mass celebrated by Bishop Martin A.

It was announced that October 22, the first proposal presented for discussion will be on a constitution on the Sacred he wants to address.

Jansen of Rotterdam.

Liturgy.

Tabulation of the votes began tributed lists.

hope that misunderstandings will be cleared away."

which the gates of hell cannot prevail."

divided may draw closer together."

hope for all mankind."

a desire to cooperate."

(Continued from Page 1)

and of the Secretariat for Extraordinary Business and the presidents of the commissions and administrative tribunals, as well as the secretary general of the council and his four under-

Before the vote was taken, a leaflet was distributed to all the Fathers which contained the names proposed by various national episcopal conferences as proposed candidates for the commissions. It was made clear, however, that every council Father is free to choose the members he wishes, even

VILLA

CONVALESCENT

AND

NURSING HOME

733 10th So. Issaquah

EX 2-5351

(NO TOLL)

"12 Minutes Floating Bridge"

Catholic M. D. owned and Operated

X-ray and Other Medical Services in Building

Wash, State Lic. No. 475

athetication of the treatment of the

POR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

[Paid Advertisement]

secretaries.

Villa was designed by Ridenour and Cockran, A.I.A., of Bellevue. Contractor was Briggs Construction Co.

Late Vocation Seminarians Diversified

GREAT BARRINGTON. Mass., (NC)-The seminary for delayed vocations here has the most diversified enrollment in its nine-year history, 32 students ranging from butler to probation officer.

The students at the Dehon Seminary of the Sacred Heart range in age from 17 to 43. Several states are represented in the group, as well as Ireland, Canada and Finland.

The Finnish student is Eero Saarinen, a former Lutheran who was converted to Catholicism in Finland. A native of Helsinki, he is 29 years old and was a postal inspector in his native country. He is believed to be the first Finnish aspirant to the priesthood to study in

Among the students also is Paul J. Schwoeler, a native of Buffalo, N.Y., who served for several years as United Service Organizations (USO) club director for the National Catholic Community Service, a member agency of the USO.

Other backgrounds represented in the class included the following: night club entertainer, pharmacist, surgical photographer, professional motorcycle racer and karate instructor.

Bishop Heads Formosa See

TAICHUNG, Formosa (NC)-Over 10,000 Catholics here joined in celebrating the installation of a missioner from Brooklyn as their first Bishop.

The Most Rev. William F. Kupfer, M.M., was installed Sept. 23 as Bishop of Taichung, newly created diocese in central Formosa, Archbishop Giuseppe Caprio, Apostolic Internuncio to China, presided at the installation.

Bishop Kupfer, 53, was consecrated July 25 by Bishop John W. Comber, M.M., Maryknoll Superior General, at Maryknoll headquarters in New York state. Catholics in the three civil districts that make up the new diocese have increased from in the last ten years. Prior to its elevation to a diocese, Taichung was a prefecture apostolic.

about 3,000 to more than 30,000

'Greek Corporal' Approved

VATICAN CITY, (Radio, NC) - His Holiness Pope John XXIII has granted all the participants in the ecumenical council the privilege of using the cloth antimension of the Eastern Church for Mass instead of an attarstone.

The Pope also granted the council Fathers permission to offer evening Mass on the days of the council sessions while residing in his Rome

The use of the antimensionwhich is also known as the Greek corporal-makes it possible to use virtually any table for an altar.

Not Public!

ST. LOUIS -(NC)- Overheard in a suburban shopping

Mother: "Hush! You've got to learn, son, that this is a public place. You can't be making all that noise in public." Six-year-old: "But Mommy!

We're not public, we're Catho-

(Paid Advertisement)

THE SIGN OF GOOD FOOD . . . YOUR ASSURANCE OF SAVINGS

70 Stores In Eastern & Western Washington To Serve You

elf

MAKE A

'SHARP'

BOTH . ENDS!

when you buy and when you finance your new car!

Only $4.50 per $100 per year on any new car at any of the 30 offices of ...

Six Central Washington Offices. Pasco, Moses Lake, Warden, Othello, Soep Lake, Ephrata

