Chamber Sets Reception For New Teachers

The Longview Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual new teachers reception Thursday, Aug. 23, at 4 p.m. at the Contessa Inn.

Ewing Adams, chairman of the Education Committee, announced that Milton Cammack, Frank Abbott, and Clarence Bailey were members of the committee arranging the reception.

Invitations have been issued to new teachers in the White Oak, Spring Hill, Pine Tree, Longview and Hallsville systems, and LeTourneau College. The reception is held each year to give the new teachers an opportunity to meet other educators entering area school systems and to get acquainted

Action Urged On Junk Yards

AUSTIN (UPI)—Rep. Frank Madla, D-San Antonio, asked Speaker Price Daniel Jr. Thursday to activate an environmental affairs subcommittee on pollution to study junk yards in residential areas.

Madla said he toured several residential areas with high concentrations of junk in San Antonio, and said he found that children were exposed to snakes and rodents from the piles of junk.

He said the yards also decrease property values in surrounding areas and create unsightly nuisances when not fenced.

with the members of the Longview Chamber of Commerce. Among this year's honorees will be C. M. Koonce, newly named superintendent of White Oak Schools, and W. C. Woolridge, Hallsville's new superintendent. Also Longview's Assistant Superintendent Milton H. Saxon will be present.

2-Year Term Given In Gregg Pistol Case

Darrell Eugene Fort, 24, Route 3, Box 412FF, Tyler, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to a two-year prison term, probated, on charges of carrying a pistol on premises licensed under the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Fort appeared before Judge Marcus Vasocu in 188th District Court here Thursday and was given the probated sentence on the recommendation of the district attorney's office.

The place in which the offense took place was the House of Soul at Kilgore, according to the district clerk's records.

Samuel Colt invented the revolver in 1835.
